8. He shall ensure that prohibited period is intimated to all concerned at least 48 hours before the commencement of the said period.
9. If the Company/ compliance officer observes that there has been a violation of the Regulations, SEBI must be informed by the Compliance Officer.

3.2 Maintenance of Records and Registers

The Compliance Officer shall maintain:

- i. Register of Pre-clearance of trading of Securities and record therein the name and designation of the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives submitting the application, date of the application, date & time of receipt of the application, nature of the transaction, number of securities, consideration value, name of the dependent family member if the transaction is in the name of the dependent family member and date & details of the actual transaction.

ii. Records of all the declarations in the appropriate form given by the Directors, Officers designated persons and their dependents for a minimum period of three years.

iii. Reporting of Decisions not to trade after securing pre-clearance.

4 Preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

4.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Further, Designated Persons and immediate relatives of designated persons in the Company may be governed by internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities of the Company, if any.

4.2 Need to Know

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a "need to know" basis, i.e., Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the company who need the information for legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information.

4.3 Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted/ destroyed after its use.

4.4 Chinese Wall

4.4.1 To prevent the misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information the Company has adopted a "Chinese Wall" policy whereby those areas of the Company which routinely have access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, considered "inside areas" are separated from areas which deal with sale/marketing/investment advise or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".

4.4.2 The Designated Persons in the inside area shall not communicate any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any one in public area.

4.4.3 The Designated Persons in inside area may be physically segregated from Designated Persons in public area and the Company may choose to demarcate various departments as inside area.

4.4.4 Only in exceptional circumstances Designated Persons from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given Unpublished Price Sensitive Information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

Provided that nothing contained above shall be applicable to any communication of or access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information required in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

However, the "Code of Practices and Procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information" and the Policy for determination of "Legitimate Purposes" as enumerated therein need to be adhered.

5 Prohibition on Dealing, Communicating or Counseling on Matters Relating to Insider Trading:

No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the company or its securities, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations

No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or its securities, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

For the purpose of this Policy, the term “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professional or other advisors or consultants, which sharing carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The Board of Directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

The Board of Directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the SEBI regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

CHAPTER – III

TRADING RESTRICTION & PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

All Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons of the Company including their immediate relatives shall be subject to trading restriction as enumerated below:

6 Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

6.1 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (iii) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - nature of the trade;
 - either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.

- (iv) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

6.2 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

However, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Further, trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

6.3 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

- 6.4 The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

7 Trading Window

- 7.1 The period prior to declaration of Unpublished price sensitive information is particularly sensitive for transaction in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons will, during that period, often possess unpublished price sensitive information.

The Directors, Designated Persons, officers, connected persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the company's securities when the trading window is closed. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as Prohibited Period. The intimation of closure shall be made through email and/ or through the website of the Company. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

- 7.2 Unless otherwise specified by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window for Dealing in Securities of the Company shall be closed for the following purposes-

- a. Financial results
- b. dividends
- c. change in capital structure
- d. mergers, de- mergers, acquisitions, delistings, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions
- e. changes in key managerial personnel

- 7.3 The Trading Window shall remain closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results, in case of declaration of financial results and during such time when the Compliance Officer determine, in other cases.

The closure of Trading Window for purposes other than declaration of financial results and for which a specific notice/ intimation is required to be given to stock exchange shall commence from the date on which intimation of the date of Board meeting for consideration of any such Price Sensitive Information is given to Stock Exchange.

However, if the circumstances so warrant, the time for closing the Trading Window may be increased or decreased by the Compliance Officer with the approval of Chairman/ Managing Director of the Company.

The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

- 7.4 The timing for re-opening of the trading window for the information referred in 7.2 shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- 7.5 All Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons of the company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only during the valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the prohibited periods or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- 7.6 In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.
- 7.7 All other time of the year, when the Trading Window does not remain closed in accordance with this clause, shall be called "Notional Trading Window".

8 Pre-clearance of trades

- 8.1 All Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons of the Company and their immediate relatives who intend to deal in the securities of the company in excess of Rs. 10,00,000/- whether in one or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter shall require prior clearance from the Compliance Officer.
- 8.2 The Clearance shall be obtained as per the procedure prescribed below:
- a) An application is to be made to the compliance officer as per the enclosed format (Form-I) indicating the estimate number of securities that the Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons intends to deal in, the details of securities held in physical form as to folio no., the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this regard.
 - b) Each Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons shall execute in favour of the Company an undertaking in the enclosed format (Form-I) for getting the trades cleared.

The Compliance Officer shall on receiving an application provide the Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons with an acknowledgement on the duplicate of the application.

The Compliance Officer shall grant approval within 2 working days from the date of acknowledgement.

The Compliance Officer shall retain copies of all applications and acknowledgements.

In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance officer is of the opinion that the proposed deal is on the basis of possession of any unpublished Price Sensitive Information. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for any withholding of consent.

If so, requested by the Compliance Officer, Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons must ensure that his stockbroker is authorised to disclose to the Company all matters relevant to his share dealings.

- 8.3 The Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons and their dependents shall execute their transactions within one week after the pre- clearance failing which they have to pre-clear the transactions again.

9 Minimum Period for holding of Securities

- a. All Directors, Designated Persons, officers, connected persons or their dependents who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e., sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.
- b. The compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations.
- c. If a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for credit remittance to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI under the Act However, this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
- d. In the case of subscription under ESOP Scheme(s) of the Company, the above-mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted. However, in case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by Compliance Officer after recording in writing reasons in this regard. The application for this approval should be made to the Compliance Officer in Form 'I' (as attached to this code).

The aforesaid restrictions on entering into opposite transaction shall not apply to acquisition of securities in the primary market or pursuant to exercise of options vested under any ESOP Scheme(s) of the Company.

CHAPTER – IV

(ii) testifying in, participating in, or otherwise assisting or aiding SEBI in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of insider trading laws or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by the SEBI in this regard; or

(iii) breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement solely to prevent any employee from cooperating with the SEBI in any manner.

Explanation 1. - For the purpose of this Chapter, “employee” means any individual who during employment may become privy to information relating to violation of insider trading laws and files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under Chapter IIIA these regulations and is a director, partner, regular or contractual employee, but does not include an advocate.

Explanation 2. - Nothing in this regulation shall require the employee to establish that, -

(i) the SEBI has taken up any enforcement action in furtherance of information provided by such person; or

(ii) the information provided fulfils the criteria of being considered as an Original Information under these regulations.

13.2 The employee will be having no obligation to notify the Company or the Board or any of its officers, of any such Voluntary Information Disclosure Form filed by him with the SEBI or to seek the prior permission or consent or guidance of the Company or the Board or any of its officers, before filing any such Form with the SEBI.

13.3 Any Clause of this Code, will tantamount to be void, whether directly or indirectly, in so far as it purports to preclude any person, other than an advocate, from submitting to the SEBI information relating to the violation of the securities laws that has occurred, is occurring or has a reasonable belief that it would occur.

14 Penalty for breach of code of conduct

- a) The Designated Persons and their immediate relatives who violate the code of conduct shall be subject to disciplinary actions by the Company that may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, etc. as may be imposed by the Company.
- b) Any amount collected under this clause shall be credited to the Investor Protection and Education Fund as administered by SEBI under the Act.
- c) The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI or other Regulatory authorities from taking any action against those who are found guilty of Insider Trading and such action may be in the form of imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years or with fine which shall not be less than five lakh rupees but which may extend to twenty-five crore rupees or three times the amount of profits made out of insider trading, whichever is higher, or with both.

15 Information to SEBI in case of violation of the Regulations

In case it is observed by the Company and/ or Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of the Regulations the stock exchange(s) where the concerned securities are traded will be promptly informed, in such form and such manner as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.

16 Clarifications

For all queries concerning this Code, all employees of the Company may please contact the Compliance Officer.

17 Amendment

The Board of Directors reserves its right to amend or modify the Code in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever.

18 Conclusion

This Code is one of the measures to avoid Insider Trading. It will be the responsibility of each person covered under this Code and SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the said regulations and comply with the same. For any assistance or clarifications, kindly contact the Compliance Officer of the Company.
